“ Hey Uncle Ernie.. Doesn't seem like it, but it's been a year tomorrow since you passed.
Every time I drive by your house I still say to myself "I should stop and see (Jerrnest)"
Miss your laugh! miss your smile!, miss your teachings.. most of all I miss you!
But I got great memories of you that will be with me for ever.
Keep watch over all of us as you normally do and...."Thank you for stopping by"###imported-begin##Salvatore (sammy)

“ I can't believe it's been this long already. Zio Ernesto you will always have the best memories that will live on. I will always miss coming to the house with my grandma and seeing the dogs and listening to some of the best stories i've ever heard told by you. I will also miss coming over with my mom, or when i came with my brother, it was a great time coming over anytime. I will always remember about a year ago you gave me some of the best advice, i finally took that advice months later and have stayed with it since, because of that i live a great life thanks to you. Not a day goes by where i don't think of you or my grandfather Guisseppe, please tell my grandpa i love and miss him. I will continue to think about the both of you as my life goes on and one day see you both again. Thank you for everything you have done for me, you were a great man.###imported-begin##Joe Kanouna###imported-end##

“ Dear Zio Ernesto, We miss you very much. You treated me as if I was one of your own grand kids along with my two favorite cousins Vince and Laura. The best childhood memories were when you used to make wooden guns for Vince and I and they were better than the "plastic" guns from the store and also the swing you made from a milk crate. You always thought of yourself last, even in sickness. The best life lessons you gave to me and Vince that we will carry through out the rest of our lives.
Please give my grandfather Giuseppe a big hug for me as I think about him every day since his passing, tell him I miss him very much and i'm sorry for making him change the channel when the price is right came on television everyday. Thinking about the both you, Love you and miss the both of you very much.##imported-begin##Michael Kanouna##imported-end##

“ You conned German SS, won the fear of unknown waters, landed in a foreign land, conquered everything, achieved all.
Only Death could win you. Or could it?
Love you.

“ I have fond memories of Zio Ernesto telling me stories of my mom and dad when they were all young and growing up together in Italy. I will always treasure that memory of him, especially when his eyes would make his whole face light up with a smile. May he rest in peace.##imported-begin##Ida Graczyk##imported-end##

“ Dear Uncle Ernest,

There are many great things that people can say about you, but for me, you were a great influence on my life. You taught me many things growing up like driving a car, riding your old motorcycle, doing cement work, and life in general. Your one liners and that smile that went with it will be missed. I'm going to say to you "see you later" because we will see each other again once it's my time. I will miss you until then and I carry all of those life lessons you taught me and the great memories. Please tell my father that I love and miss him. I love you too!##imported-begin##Anthony Pulcini##imported-end##

“ Uncle Ernie,

*Just as you started to get sick, you said to me "SAM! (with your stern voice), do everything you want to do in life....I did everything I wanted and if I died tomorrow.... I would die happy!"
Going to miss your all stories!
Give Nonno Salvatore, Nonna Rosaria and Uncle Joe a hug for me!##imported-begin##Salvatore (sammy) Toscano##imported-end##*
