“ I am so sorry to learn that your mom passed away. I didn't hear of her passing until after the services. I will always have happy memories of her and your dad. Your mom had the best laugh. I used to love getting her Christmas cards that she did the drawings for.##imported-begin##Pam Kurkowski (formerly Gray - George/Bonnie)##imported-end##

“ TO JOANN'S FAMILY - I CANT BELIEVE THAT SHE IS GONE. I SAW HER ALMOST EVERY DAY. SHE ALWAYS HAD A SMILE AND A HELLO FOR EVERYONE. IN MY 38 YEARS AT SJRDH SHE WAS ONE OF THE NICEST PEOPLE I MET. SHE WILL BE GREATLY MISSED FOR MANY REASONS.##imported-begin##DEB JEROUE##imported-end##

“ I occasionally had the privilege of serving as Sacristan with JoAnn at St Margaret's. She always had a smile and loved to laugh and socialize. Her presence would light up the room. Although she will be truly missed, God must have needed one more star to light up the heavens.##imported-begin##Kathy Gibbons##imported-end##

“ May JoAnn rest in eternal light and peace. I will truly miss her smiling face and gift of conversation. Everyday when I went to work, I looked for JoAnn and hoped our paths would cross in the hospital. We could talk about anything and everything. What a grand lady she was, and I know that our dear Lord has a plan for her in heaven. Take Care.##imported-begin##Rosemary Kowalski##imported-end##

“ Anyone who knew our mother new how very special she was. She was always more concerned about everyone else before herself and that was multiplied many times for her children and grandchildren. She will always be in my heart. I can't even begin to list all of the things that she taught me but it is safe to say that I am who I am because of my mother...at least all of the good things :-).##imported-begin##Bud Grobert##imported-end##
