“ Christmas wasn't Christmas without Uncle Joe being a part of the "Day-After" holiday dinners at my folks' house(Mary and Bob) all these years. He was a constant friend to them, and will always be a fond part of my memories of growing up. I saw him last January, and somehow was not surprised to see that even in his eighties Uncle Joe still liked to toss a quip or a joke at you, then look at you sideways to make sure you caught it. I like to think of him doing that with my folks now.
My love to Phillip and Allen and Mark--

“ Phil, Allen, Mark and Family,
My sincere condolences on the passing of your father. I'll always remember the childhood times spent with your parents and mine and some of the stories my father shared about their younger years. They also shared the same birthday.
I'll always remember your father for his upbeat personality. I'll keep all of you in my prayers.
