

Joseph John Comiskey

June 24, 1975 - July 29, 2010

Comiskey,

Joseph, age 35, passed away on July 29, 2010. Beloved son of Ed and Carol.

Loving brother of Tom and Johnny. Dear grandson of Annette Laige.

Treasured nephew to many Aunts, Uncles, and Cousins. He will be dearly missed by his many friends and clients, and especially by Jessica, Shannon, and best friend Billy. Special recognition to the staff of Henry Ford Belmont.

Memorial Contributions to the wishes of the family would be appreciated.

“ God saw you getting tired and a cure was not to be, so He put his arms around you and whispered "come to me." With tearful eyes I watched you, and saw you pass away. Although I loved you dearly I couldn't make you stay. A golden heart stopped beating, hardworking hands at rest; God broke my heart to prove to me, He only.....takes the best.##imported-begin##katina douveas##imported-end##

“ I met Joe through my neighbor - I was looking for someone to take care of my lawn. Meeting Joe was a true blessing. He was so kind to all of his customers, always had a smile on his face, was so thoughtful and considerate. He walked that extra mile for everyone. His parents and family can be very proud. He will be truly missed by all.
Sincerely,
Karen LLaneza##imported-begin##Karen LLaneza##imported-end##

“ I am sad and shocked I will no longer see Joe around cutting our lawns. He saved me a few times when I locked myself out of my house several times. He would come over within minutes as he kept my garage door opener to get in the yard. Joe always had a great smile and great attitude. My heartfelt sympathy to Joe's family.##imported-begin##Laura Peebles##imported-end##

“ Joe Comiskey. Travel well my friend. You will be missed. Even though we all wished your stay would have been longer, you gave us more than a lifetime worth of great memories. Start the bonfire and crack a Molson without us. We'll be "up north" before you know it.##imported-begin##Zack Green##imported-end##

“ We, the staff from Linda,s Place, wish to convey out heartfelt condolences to Joe,s family and friends. We just loved it when Joey and Jessica came into the restaurant. Joey had such a swweet smile and was always so polite. We,ve missed him alot these past few months, God is getting a great guy, but he took him far too soon. God Bless Joey and his family.##imported-begin##Linda,s Place Restaurant##imported-end##

“ I went to school with Joe. I am so sorry for your loss! May God be with you and yours during this difficult time and wrap his arms around you all! JOE: You were always such a sweet person and had a beautiful smile, warm heart and such a fun personality!! One of my fondest memories of you would have to be watching you dance to Michael Jackson's music at Gecko's, I even sometimes joined you! You had the crowd watching you and cheering you on, you were awesome and you will be missed!##imported-begin##Rachel Burgess (Fogle)##imported-end##

“ joey, i can't believe you're gone. i will miss your huge grin, your softspoken-ness, and your bad ass moves on the dance floor - i bet you and michael jackson are collaborating, already xoxo i will remember you as an honorary big bro - you were always my brother's best friend, and you, tommy and johnny were always around, all of you are like brothers to me and billy xx i will never forget the sandbox in your garage back in the old neighborhood, and how we all found each other again in the new neighborhood. i will never forget johnny in diapers, and so many other things. you guys were always over, and y'all took so much abuse from me and my immature teenage friends - thank you for putting up with us being jerks. and for driving us around, giving us rides. and for teaching me how to drive / letting me drive the notorious station wagon, and do brake torcs in the school parking lot. and for dressing up like steve urkel and making us all laugh xx and for always being around. and for helping to build / fix / race the go cart and, later on, the camaro and then the mustangs. and for being willing to put yourself out there - you were always "all in", and fully present xx and for being my brother's best friend forever. and for being exactly who you are, without compromise. and for buying me beer :) and for always dressing up so nicely. and for pulling my hair :) and for making all our new year's eve parties so memorable and EPIC. and for being such a gentleman. and for being so sweet xoxo and for being there for billy for all these years xx and for letting us always scream "JOE!!!!!" in annoying, high-pitched voices at you. and for taking it all in stride. and for taking such great care of your brothers - tommy tom tom tom and zorba the greek to mini me, please :) and for everything joey - i'm gona miss you xx none of us will ever forget you xoxo you are so loved, you've always been loved - that will never change. see you on the other side, my brother xoxo###imported-begin###katina douveas###imported-end###

“ I am so sorry for Joe's family and friends. Who could ever forget that beautiful smile of his, or, his gentle way. He will be missed by all who knew him. He loved to sing the song Lady in Red. I am certain he is singing in Heaven where I am certain he is being welcomed with open arms and applause.

My deepest sympathies.##imported-begin##nora satrun##imported-end##
