“ I am so saddened to have found out of Joe's passing. Joe was my sister's next door neighbor and in the time I lived with her, I got to know Joe and he was just so wonderful. I loved talking with him. He was a model neighbor. Recently, my sister was concerned in seeing Joe's car parked there for consecutive days...when she mentioned that his beloved dogs were not there...we became quite concerned. I was shocked to find an obituary posted online. We are still stunned and his loss is deeply felt by his neighbors. My deepest sympathy and condolences to his family. Love and strength to you all.##imported-begin##Eliana G##imported-end##

“ Dear Weiss Family,

Although I did not know Mr. Weiss very well, I was a regular customer at the store. I just recently heard of his passing and I was shocked and saddened. I remember seeing him there, always hard a work and always willing to answer any questions that anyone had. He will be sadly missed. My hope for your family is that you will know just how much he was appreciated among his customers and that you will find strength in knowing that you have each other to hold onto. May God bless all of you.##imported-begin##M. Hackel##imported-end##

“ Andrea and Ron -
Words can't express my sadness for your loss. I know how close you and your Dad were. You both have three beautiful girls, who I am sure your dad was so proud of the parents you have become. May you find happiness and love in the memories made and the moments that made you laugh and feel blessed. I can remember the many stories of finding strength and working hard you shared with me in college about your Dad and family. You both are truly wonderful and loving people who so many of us are proud of. My prayers, thoughts, and sincerest condolences are with you both and your family.##imported-begin##Justin Beaupre##imported-end##
