“ Our deepest, most sincere sympathies to Sharyl and family.

Lou was definitely one of a kind. That booming voice and laugh will be missed. It's going to be hard to sit at my moms house and look across the street and not see Lou cutting the grass, putting up Christmas lights, planting flowers or just taking pride in his lawn. He was definitely a dedicated man.

I am going to miss my "hurricane Lou" The man who would throw lots of work at me and want it done by the time he finished his sandwich and bathroom break. I keep hearing his voice over and over in my head saying... "Suzaaaaaannne" to which I'd reply "Louisssssss" and I'd get that great big smile and laugh from him. I know I wasn't family, but I sure felt like it at times. I will miss Lou.

Rest in peace Lou.##imported-begin##Suzanne & Chris Gerth##imported-end##
