“ THERE IS A POEM BY EMILY DICKINSON.

MARY-JO gave me the pleasure and the great joy to discover this poet.
I am so grateful for this. And I want to express my deep sympathy for the Lacey family and tell them that I am so sorry for their loss.

LOVE FROM BELGIUM,
YVONNE

*I had been hungry all the years-
My noon had come, to dine-
I, trembling, drew the table near
And touched the curious wine.*

*'T was this on tables I had seen
When turning, hungry, lone,
I looked in windows, for the wealth
I could not hope to own.*

*I did not know the ample bread,
'T was so unlike the crumb
The birds and I had often shared
In Nature's dining-room.*

*The plenty hurt me, 't was so new,-- Myself felt ill and odd,
As berry of a mountain bush
Transplanted to the road.*

*Nor was I hungry; so I found
That hunger was a way
Of persons outside windows,
The entering takes away.*
