“ To the Moran Family ~ I am so sorry to hear of Mary Kay's early passing. I know that she had her "moments", and I hope that she found the help she needed to live out the time she had left in good physical and mental health. It's so hard to lose a family member, especially as young as Mary Kay. I will keep all of you in my prayers, will light a candle at mass next week in her memory, and ask our gracious Lord to hold all of you in the palm of His hand. My love to all of you.##imported-begin##Debbie Robbins Reding##imported-end##

“ My heart is hurting of the loss of Mary. She was so full of life. Always the first in line to lend a helping hand. Mary has done alot for me in the past, & that including being my birthing coach of my daughter 14 yrs ago. That was such an exciting day for me & Mary was the biggest help!!!! I will miss her last minute calls explaining how she has to be at a wedding or party in an hour, and asking "can you do my hair"? lol!!!! I never turned her down!!! I sure will miss her:(Rest in Peace sweet Mary, I will one day see you again:) I love you!!!! Love, Jackie##imported-begin##Jackie (Brown) Tanguay##imported-end##
