“ *The first time we met, I licked your face, I asked you to be my Grandma. You said yes. It was one of the best days of my life. You will always be my "Good Little Grandma" and I will always be your "Good Little Girrl." I will guard and protect "Your Bill," He is "My Bill too." With a snuggle and a cuddle I love you. “ Grandma, you will be missed so much by your family. Thank you for the afternoons of crafts & games, raisin bread toast & tea. And thank for sharing your stories about your nursing school experiences and your career. I remember late one evening hearing all about Inga and your other nursing friends. You were clearly well like by all kinds of people, and I think you made a difference for lots of folks. I will carry you with me in my heart forever. All my love. “ Grandma was such a very big part of my childhood growing up. Kind, caring, like a second mother. That's not even counting the stick-wicky bags and mountains of candy that all of us grand kids used to consume there. I will miss her greatly and will always cherish all the great memories that I have of her.

“ I know that sooner or later, the Good Lord will call us back to his fold. For the most special person, I thought an exception would be made. In Heaven, there sits the Lord Himself. With him is The Virgin Mary. I am a good Catholic boy at heart so I have to believe this. My Mother has now joined them. Those are the only three Souls that I know fore sure are there. Of the rest, I cannot be sure. Mom I will always miss you, but I will never forget you.

Rest in Peace.##imported-begin##Bill Laus##imported-end##
