“ *Dear loving Husband Guy,
We met way back in high school. I told you then that we would be married one day. You weren't so sure but I said we would go off & marry other people but I knew we would be together.*

You kept your promise to me and took me to my senior prom. Throughout the years our paths crossed multiple times, ~ Mr. C's, the Gibraltar fair, random places.

Then in the summer of 2003 "GOD blessed the broken road that lead to you." We started dating again, & all of the love, chemistry & devotion was still there between us. Since that day I thought I couldn't be happier. Three years later we were legally bound as husband & wife. You proved to me that I COULD be happier!

Every day with you proved to be better than the day before, even through your illness. I treasured and loved the time together. You are my soulmate.

Yes our time together here on earth was short, but I would do it all over again. Becasue "At Last My Love has come along". "The skies above are blue. My heart was wrapped up in clovers. The night I looked at you. I found a dream that I could speak to. A dream that I can call my own. I found a thrill to rest my cheek to. A thrill that I have never known."

I love you so much! Rest In Peace, my sweet Husband Guy!

“ My heart goes out to the entire Mickens Family. I can not even imagine what it feels like to lose a sibling, or a child, or even your spouse....but I do know what it feels like to lose someone you truly care and love so dearly. knowing you will never have those moments in this life together., again...I know Nate will be missed deeply, but I also believe that while we don't completely understand all the "whys" and we can't help but feel sad or even a little angry for our own selfish reasons... but just knowing that Nate is at peace, and welcomed by the Angels and comforted by God and HIS LIGHT, brings it all into perspective for me, and what LIFE is REALLY all about.....and I am sure Nate realizes now, what it was all about and some of those questions are finally answered....and he is now at home, and in peace.....Life really doesn't get much better than THAT! I am so very sorry for this loss here on earth, Nate was a great man. Very generous, loving...and I don't think I've ever seen Missy happier, then the times she's been with Nate....I've known Missy all my life, and I can honestly say, Nate is the love of her life, and the sparkle in her eyes....I loved him even more for being who he was to Missy, and our entire family. Thank you Nate for bringing strength and love...and for being a part of our lives. I will truly miss you.....but I know one day, we will meet again. God Bless your soul....Sincerely, Chante' & Dave Ferguson###imported-begin##Chante##imported-end##

“ Daddy, I love you so much! You are one amazing man, and because of you and your constant spoiling you have shown me how a guy needs to treat me! You have caused my life to be so much better with in the years the i have known you. I may not be "your own" but you never cared about that. You may be gone, but your memory will always remain. I LOVE YOU SUPERDADDY!###imported-begin###Kayla Ann###imported-end##
