“ To the Doyle Family,

The Bible assures us at Psalms 34:18 that God is "near to those that are broken at heart; and those who are crushed in spirit he saves." Therefore a relationship with God can help you to cope with the death of someone you love. Therefore, I encourage you to pour out your heart to the "God of all comfort"(2Corinthians 1:3) because he can and will help you.##imported-begin##Neighbor##imported-end##

“ Pat was a dear friend, a woman of integrity and honesty, and deeply spiritual. She was a wonderful volunteer at Bon Secours Nursing Home where we met after her Mother died and kept up our friendship since then. I am sure God welcomed her with open arms of love.##imported-begin##Patricia Soltesz,IHM##imported-end##

“ We knew Pat through our Casa Materna connection. She was truly a loyal and committed friend of the Casa Materna. She never failed to assist us whenever we needed her help in our mission to share the news of the Casa Materna with the parishioners of St. Gerard Parish in Lansing Michigan. Her warmth and caring always shined through the conversations we would have with her. She will be missed. May God now enfold you, Pat, in glorious and everlasting love.##imported-begin##Theresa & Mike Kidd##imported-end##

“ In the short time that I knew Pat she touched my heart in a very big way. I am grateful for the opportunity to be part of her life and honored to call her a friend.

I wish that I could come home for the service, but I will find a way to celebrate her life here in Chicago.##imported-begin##Becky Wilson##imported-end##

“ I will always treasure the friendship I shared with Pat. We had good times, and shared hard times. Pat was a faithful friend. How she loved the holiday times we spent together with others along with Mary Ellen. I could also count on having a delicious lemon pie brought by Pat.

Rest in the Lord and remember your friends whom you loved and they loved you.##imported-begin##S. Rita Cocquyt, SC##imported-end##

“ Our Auntie Pat had a way of making me as a kid, feel important and valuable. During visits to grandma’s, she would “play” with the kids, sometimes monopoly, other time cheering for us as we climbed the fruit trees in the yard or playing endless games of war (card) and she did it with a joy!

Then there where the outings she did with us, simple now, but great escapes then, one I remember was movie, pop, popcorn and ice cream afterward, Shawn and I felt like kings...

For almost 60 years auntie Pat you where part of my life... love you, your nephew Jimmy and Nancy##imported-begin##Jim and Nancy Doyle##imported-end##
