“ Bobby,

You're the man. What can i say. I knew you briefly, but the impact is lasting. You'll live on in many loved one's hearts, but, more importantly, in every Fantasy Football season from now until eternity. Play on, Bob. We love you.

“ So very sorry for your loss, Pat. So many good memories of you and Bobby and the fun we had. You were both so strong when times were tough. The Lord will take care of you now and I know you have a great family that will support you. God Bless you Pat. You are in my prayers.##imported-begin##Chris Pontillo##imported-end##

“ I feel so blessed to have had the chance to get to know Bobby. I probably best remember his last visit to California when we all went to the beach and had a wonderful lunch in which we talked and laughed the whole time. When he found out Matt was interested in Fantasy Football he called us up several times in Oregon to talk football and invite Matt to play in the fantasy league with him. Bobby, you will be greatly missed but we hope to see you again. We now have an angel to watch over us and our fantasy teams (because we know youâ€™ll still be watching). Miss you buddy!##imported-begin##Mary Adams##imported-end##

“ Hi Pat. I am so sorry for you loss! Bobby was such a cool guy and I also remember going to the cottage and having a blast with your family. I remember in 6th grade when he came back from the hospital, we sat together and I helped him out the first few days. He always had such a great attitude no matter what he was going through, a strength I'm sure he got from you! He made a big impression on a lot of people and will be missed and remembered for many many years. Love you. My thoughts and prayers are with you.##imported-begin##Lisa Schuette##imported-end##

“ Bobby was the fastest kid and the best basketball player in grade school. He was always laid back and laughing. I remember one day when Russ and Bobby came up to my door and said that we have to get everyone back together for a reunion and it turned out pretty good. I only wish I could be as tough and brave as you. Bobby...you will be missed.##imported-begin##John McCracken##imported-end##

“ Bobby was such a great person. I went to grade school with him at Trinity. He was always such a nice kid growing up. I always remember Bobby Carter as being the fastest kid in gym class! He always remained to be happy and have a smile on his face, even through some of his worst times. I am truly sorry for loss.##imported-begin##Mindy Cronin##imported-end##

“ Carter....there are no words to express the void that you have left in all of our lives. As much as I know that you are in a much better place and are running around and gambling like the junkie you were (lol), I am just being a bit selfish because I wasn't ready to say goodbye to you yet. I love you Carter and I take comfort in knowing that you are watching over us... Your cousin Kristin###imported-begin##Kristin Reddin###imported-end##
