“ Dear Rosemary and Family,
First let me offer from my heart, my deepest sympathies on the death of Tom. You have all made me feel like one of the family since I've known you, and that warms my heart. In all my years living in Belgium, France, Canada or here in America, I have never seen a more beautiful or touching farewell, for anyone I've known. Tom was deeply loved by many, including me. God Bless you all.##imported-begin##Marcella Maraval-Bossuyt##imported-end##

“ Dear Rosemary, Michael & family,

We are so sorry for your loss.
Rosemary, we can imagine how hard it must be to say goodbye to the man you loved and shared the greatest part of your life with.
We hope from the bottom of our heart that you and your family can find some sorrow in the fine memories you had with Tom.
Through these memories he will stay alive in the hearts of your children and grand-children and all the people he knew.
We wish you and the whole family strength and courage through this difficult time and we share in your sorrow.
Please accept our deepest condolences.

“ Dear Michael,

Please accept my sorrow and deep feelings for you and for the loss of your father. Since you can read Flemish (and German) I have to send you this poem from Rilke with all my love. X Yvonne

Herinnering

*En je wacht en wacht maar op dat ene
dat je leven eindeloos verrijkt;
het machtige, het ongemene
het ontwaken van de stenen,
de diepte die niet langer zwijgt.*

*De boeken langs de wanden
staan in leer op goud te rouwen;
en je denkt weer aan doorzворven landen,
aan foto's en aan kleren
van opnieuw verloren vrouwen.*

*En plotseling begrijp je het: - Voorbij. En je staat op en daar verrijst een lang vervlogen jaar
in angst, gedaante en gebed.*
