“ Dear Virginia,

You were a great neighbor, a great friend and such a great person. Your heart was as big as the sky. I will always remember when I sent my son to his first day of school and you took me in to console me. Also, the day that you pierced my ears. I feel so badly that I did not learn of your passing until months after. I will always remember you.##imported-begin##Cindy MacKool##imported-end##

“ I'm so sorry for the loss of Virginia. She will be missed every day. Please find comfort knowing that our heavenly father has promised to "be near to those crushed in spirit and to those broken at heart he saves" (Psalms 34:18) May you feel that comfort which comes only from him, until you see Virginia again some day.##imported-begin##Jeanne O##imported-end##

“ I knew Virginia all my life. She had the most contagious laugh and a smile that lit the entire room, creative hands that could do anything and a true unconditional love of family.
My thoughts upon hearing of her passing:
A garden of sunshine, an arbor of love
Colors and fragrances all mingle so sweet
My loving memories forever repeat
So much time passed-so many years missed
Yet nothing had changed-her smile and wit so freely shared
The strength and conviction-you knew she really cared
Never a flower will I touch, see or smell
A garden of color, an image, an Angel, a voice will I hear
A flower from life's garden who's petals touched so many
God picked for his own and left me a tear.
You will be missed by many.##imported-begin##Patty##imported-end##

“ Walter, I don't know how long you were married, but I know you miss Virginia very much, she was your life partner and best friend. Soon Almighty God will swallow up death forever. Let's not forget the wonderful hope of the resurrection (Acts 9:36-41 and 24:15). My sympathy to you and your family.##imported-begin##CP##imported-end##

“ I don't know where to begin... I loved mom so much and will always love her. I know she is out of pain and looking down on us from a place where she is pain free. Her spirit will always be with us. I know she lives in Virgie with her eyes and demeanor. We are very blessed in life to have walked in the same path as Mom. I LOVE YOU MOM!##imported-begin##Renee LaGrow##imported-end##
